Kellan Monroe

The Music Search Committee is pleased to recommend Kellan Monroe to serve FBC Grapevine as our Minister of Music.

Kellan began his professional music career as the baritone singer and pianist with the Southern Gospel group “Beyond The Ashes” from 2011-2013. During his years with “Beyond the Ashes”, the group performed about 250 concerts per year across North America and around the world. They were twice nominated for Dove Awards and twice nominated for AGM Awards.

Kellan currently serves as the Worship Ministry Associate at First Baptist Church of North Augusta, South Carolina, where his responsibilities include production management, volunteer recruitment and coordination, service planning, worship leading and musical direction.
